Delawrence Brown

Delawrence truly embodied what it means to "Trust the Process." During his time at Here's Help, he matured, took responsibility for his actions, and made remarkable progress.

He stepped into the role of kitchen assistant manager after Raymond M. left and excelled with professionalism and dedication. His hard work left a lasting impact, for which we are truly grateful.

An exemplary client, he applied the skills learned in Culinary Arts and Computer Tech, securing a job before graduation. His journey is a true success story!

CONGRATULATIONS!

Here's Help had six graduates apply to the Youth Automotive Training Center, with four clients being accepted into the program.
